Howard Helvey

Howard holds a Bachelor of Music degree in composition from the University of Missouri-Columbia and a Master of Music degree in composition and piano performance from the University of Cincinnati's College Conservatory of Music. He also serves as organist and choirmaster for Calvary Episcopal Church, Cincinnati, Ohio.

He has published hundreds of compositions and arrangements that are published by leading music publishers. Mr. Helvey has received awards from the John Ness Beck Foundation for outstanding achievement in choral composition.

Heather Sorenson

Heather is known for her compositions in choral anthems, solo piano collections, and orchestrations. She easily maneuvers both traditional and contemporary genres of Christian music. Her pieces remain at the top of Bestsellers lists and Editor's Choice selections.

She taught elementary levels of music at Grace Academy of Dallas, served as an adjunct music professor at Baylor University, and has served on master class panels in piano and songwriting.

Heather's heart is in leading the Church in worship, and she feels that her greatest calling is using her music to connect people with God.
